Objective	This follows the theme of the SONY video contest for 2009. The assignment is to do a video describing how technology will change your life in the future. Students are encouraged to interview important people in their community to get their perspective, i.e. teachers, principals, mayors, legislators, etc. (The SONY contest deadline is 04/01/09.)
Directions	Guidelines can be found at www.techinmotioncontest.com . Students must use the SONY editing bench if they wish to submit an entry in this contest. For receiving a grade in this course, you can use any editing bench you are comfortable using.
